3. Any eligible Clients that meet the criteria will be permitted to receive a bonus based on their deposited sum and according to the percentage as set out on the promotion page.
4. To activate the bonus credit sum on the trading account, the Client shall register only from the dedicated promotion page and verify the account as per the Company's terms and conditions and claim the bonus via email to support@yadix.com
5. All eligible Clients are permitted to hold only one (1) account for the purpose of the promotion. Multiple account registrations from the same IP or physical address or with the same registered personal details are not permitted.
6. The bonus can General be used to support the account during drawdown and the bonus can be lost, should the client's equity reach the level below the deposited sum, the bonus will not be removed.
7. This credit will be made available for 60 days only, thereafter, the account will be considered dormant which will lead to the removal of the bonus and any proportional profits generated.
8. The sum of the deposit, which received the bonus, becomes available for withdrawal after the cancellation of the bonus or when the requirements for the trading volume are fulfilled.
9. The bonus sum is applied to the credit and provides the account with additional trading power. The bonus sum can be converted and transferred to the client's real balance upon the completion of the following trading volumes in the allocated timeframe.
10. Trading requirements for bonus conversion: For every $1 in bonus received the client must trade 0.2 lots. For example, if 500 USD in bonus is granted, the client must trade $500 * 0.2 = 100$ lots within 60 days.
11. The withdrawal of any part of the deposited sum will lead to the cancellation of the entire bonus sum and the proportional amount of the profit according to the starting equity share.
12. Profit gained from trading the bonus funds can be withdrawn proportionally if all terms stated are fulfilled, and according to the following examples:

Client deposited 1,000 and received 500 in bonus credit.

Account's equity	Client's share	Company's share	Funds available to withdraw, bonus not cancelled	Funds available to withdraw, bonus cancelled
1,500	66,66% (1, 000)	33,33% (500)	$1,000 - 1,000 = 0$	$1,500 - 500 = 1,000$

The client trades and generates 500 in trading profits, the account equity is now 2,000:

Account's equity	Client's share	Company's share	Funds available to withdraw, bonus not cancelled	Funds available to withdraw, bonus cancelled
2,000	66,66% (1,333.33)	33,33% (666.65)	$1,333.33 - 1,000 = 333.33$	$2000 - 666.65 = 1,333.35$

The client trades and generates 500 in trading losses, the account equity is now 1,000:

Account's equity	Client's share of loss	Company's share of loss	Funds available to withdraw, bonus not cancelled	Funds available to withdraw, bonus cancelled
1,000	100% (500)	0% (0)	$500 - 1,000 = 0$	$1,000 - 500 = 500$

The client trades and generates 500 in trading profits, the account equity is now 2,000 and the client wants to withdraw profit and 500 of the deposited amount:

Account's equity	Client's Starting Share	Company's Starting Share	Funds available to withdraw, bonus not cancelled	Funds available to withdraw, bonus cancelled
2,000	66,66% (1,333.33)	33,33% (666.65)	N/A	$2000 - 500$ (bonus) = $1500 - 499.95$ (proportional share) = 1000.05

13. The bonus or any part of the balance of eligible accounts cannot be transferred to any other account, failure to comply will lead to the cancellation of the relevant accounts and the removal of the bonus, the cancellation of all trades and the annulment of any profits gained.
